

Studio Policy

This studio is committed to developing the musical potential of each student it enrolls. In order to ensure the success of each student, this policy has been established, to facilitate harmonious, continuous progress and growth.

- Pre-paid tuition on a monthly basis is due prior to or at the first lesson of each month, payable to Nicole Gyomber. If payment is not met after two lessons (at teacher's discretion), lessons will be temporarily discontinued until payment is resolved.
- All absences with notice are to be rescheduled at the convenience of both student and instructor. Please call (619) 504-7539 or email ngyomber8990@pointloma.edu. All absences must be preceded by a phone call 24 hours in advance (except for unexpected illness) of scheduled lesson time. A missed lesson without 24 hour notice to instructor will NOT be made-up and is to be considered cancelled. The regular lesson fee will be charged for a cancelled lesson.
- A tardy student has only the time remaining in his/her lesson period.
- Music, materials, and fees for student activities are student expenses and are accounted for each month.
- The teacher does have the authority to raise lesson rates within an appropriate period of time with advance notice.

I agree to the policy listed above.

x_____

